

Touchdowns and tacos

By OLIVIA MURPHY, SPECIAL TO THE CLIPPER

Yo Taco, located at 30 Railroad Ave. is among the newest restaurants in Duxbury. This take-out restaurant serves Mexican food ranging from mouth-watering burritos to creamy frozen yogurt known as "Yo Fro Yo."

STUDENT VOICES

A total of 20 people waited for the doors to open Aug. 15, on Yo Taco's opening day. From my observations, Yo Taco seems to always be bustling with excitement. After recently speaking with one of the owners, Kelly Laviolette, I have been notified that you will not only be able to get tacos at Yo Taco but possibly Mexican cuisine at Duxbury High School football games at the concession stand. Food at football games will consist of burritos and tacos. Yo Taco will soon be catering and serving breakfast at seven in the morning, so be on the look out. Not only has Yo Taco been great for dinners, it's a popular place for kids to hang out and grab a snack after school. Their "Yo Fro Yo" is a hit! You can pick either vanilla or chocolate frozen yogurt to be mixed with their many mix-in toppings. If you do not see a mix-in you like, Yo Taco is open to suggestions from customers. Another thing you should check out is the natural sugar, no high fructose corn syrup, Mexican coke imported all the way from Mexico. It is available in multiple flavors such as orange and raspberry. I have tried it myself and it is most certainly refreshing! Although the "Mom's Taco" would have to be the most popular on Yo Taco's menu, they serve a wide variety of food that you can enjoy seven days a week from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Be sure to check out Yo Taco and watch for their Mexican cuisine at football games.
